(Sandeep & Anr. vs. State of Rajasthan & Anr.)

Date of order : November 28, 2006

HON'BLE MR.H.R.PANWAR,J.

Mr.R.C.Joshi, for the petitioner.
Mr. Ashok Upadhyaya, P.P.

By the instant criminal misc. petition under section 482, Cr.P.C., the petitioner seeks quashing of FIR No.239/2006, Police Station, Rajgarh, Distt. Churu for the offences under sections 363 and 366 I.P.C.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Public Prosecutor.

Learned Public Prosecutor submits that the statement of non-petitioner No.2, who is prosecutrix in the said FIR case, has been recorded by the police and in her statement, she stated that she had not been kidnapped by the petitioner but on her own, she went with the petitioner and married with him. The police has proposed to file the negative final report.

In view of the statement of the learned Public Prosecutor, nothing survives in the petition.

The petition is, therefore, disposed of. However, if the police does not file the negative final report and the petitioner feels aggrieved by the said FIR, he may file a fresh petition.
